

2015 Conference on Reconciliation and the Métis in Canada

In Partnership with the Métis Treaties Project, Institute of Canadian and Aboriginal Studies, Chair of Métis Research and the Faculty of Law, University of Ottawa

October 23rd - 25th, 2015
University of Ottawa
Faculty of Law

PANEL TOPICS

1. Perspectives on the Nature of Métis Social and Political Structures
2. Narratives of Métisness, Community and Peoplehood
3. Métis as Aboriginal, Indigenous or Other
4. Métis as Treaty Partners with the Crown and First Nations
5. Contemporary Métis - Crown Legal and Constitutional Issues

SPEAKERS

Special Keynote Speaker
Paul Chartrand
Former Commissioner for the Royal Commission on Aboriginal Peoples

Chris Andersen, University of Alberta
Catherine Bell, University of Alberta
Larry Chartrand, University of Ottawa
Adam Gaudry, University of Saskatchewan
Brenda Gunn, University of Manitoba
Brenda Macdougall, University of Ottawa
Darren O'Toole, University of Ottawa
Nicholas Vrooman, Montana
And many others...

For more details, travel arrangements and conference agenda see <http://www.metistreatiesproject.ca>

uOttawa | 1-877-985-0000 | Canada | Métis Treaties Project